him He is our King. We'll sing to him e - ter - nal - ly.

The second system of musical notation continues the grand staff from the first system. It concludes with a double bar line. The lyrics are placed below the treble staff.
