

Souviens-toi Remember, Infant Mine

Translated by David Welker

d'Antonin Dvorak

1.Re - mem-ber, in - fant mine, Heav'n - ly par - ents dear
2.Re mem-ber, in - fant mine, im - ag - ine a - gain,
3.Re - mem-ber, in - fant mine, at the dawn of time,

5

Lov - ing - ly held you close, once in Heav'n did dwell
Woods and hills, wa - ter - falls, ci - ties paved in gold.
We were friends once be - fore just be - yond my sight.

9

Now on Earth, still re - flects in your gaze so clear.
Is the sun wait - ing there, for the snow or rain?
Then one day, Fa - ther shared His great plan sub - lime.

13

Mo - ther and Fa - ther dear watch - ing o'er, now tell
Ev' - ning skies' pal - ette glows, e - choes tales un - told.
We pro-mised in - fant mine, on that bles - sed night

17

Inf - fant mine, all you see of that bles - sed sphere,
 Re - mem - ber, in - fant mine, heav - en's sweet re - frain,
 To ac - cept Christ our Lord, His great plan di - vine!

21

While your eyes yet per - ceive realms be - yond the veil.
 Song - birds loft prais - es from a for - got - ten world.
 Led by love, filled with faith, here to re - u - nite.

Hymn No. 179 from the LDS French Hymnal. Original lyrics by the French Language Committee of the Church

2

English Lyrics Copyright David Welker 2018 all non-profit use allowed

Souviens-toi / Remember, Infant Mine p2