

Paul the Apostle

Druann S Lacey

Druann S Lacey

Adagio

Saul was a Phar - i - see, a scho - lar of the scrip - tures. He loved Je - Once he was trav - el - ing the road to - ward Da - ma - cus. He saw a Now known as Paul, he taught the gos - pel of our Sav - ior. Then per - se - Paul wrote ep - is - tles to the Chris - tian saints of an - cient days. We, too, can ho - vah but Christ He did not know. He thought he was do - ing right to light there and heard the voice of Christ. "Why per - se - cut - est thou me?" cu - tion and suf - fer - ing he knew. But he loved the Lord and he learn from the les - sons that he taught. The pow - er of faith, and the per - se - cute the Saints. He watched the ston - ing of a man while Je - sus Christ in - quired. "Oh Lord, what would thou have me do?" a want - ed to do right. Be - came the great - est mis - sion - ar - y, ar - mor of Light. Be - stead - fast and im - mov - a - ble, and 15

hold - ing coats there lain.
hum - bled Paul de - sired.
served with all his might.
al - ways speak of Christ.

Endings 1-3 Final ending.