

The Lamb of God

♩ = 60

Words and Music by John W. Holt

F Dm B♭ Dm C Dm

He knelt down in the gar - den of pain,
 With a poi - soned kiss He was be - trayed.
 His hea - vy cross He brought to Cal - va - ry's hill,
 When the third day came the stone was re - moved,
 To take up - on Him - self all
 In - to the sha - dows He was
 The dread - ed sen - tence on - ly
 And it re - vealed, in - side an

B♭ Dm F Dm B♭ Dm

wor - ld - ly stains.
 take - n a - way.
 He could ful - fill.
 emp - ty tomb.
 There He trem - bled as He bled from each pore,
 False - ly charged, He was tried and con - demned,
 "It is fin - ished," were the last words He said,
 As He proph - e - sied, He lives a - gain,

C Dm B♭ Dm B♭ F Dm

So great the an - guish that he faith - ful - ly bore. Be - hold the Lamb of God; The
 And bound by en - e - mies, for - sake - n by friends. Be - hold the Lamb of God; The as skies grew dark - er and He bowed His head. Be - hold the Lamb of God; His
 And now He waits for His mil - len - nial reign. Be - hold the Lamb of God; The

B♭ F C B♭ C Dm C F B♭ C F

Son of Right - teous - ness. Al - pha, Ome - ga, be gin - ning, the end, Be - hold the Lamb of God.
 Bright and Morn - ing Star. Cho - sen by God and re - ject - ed by man, Be - hold the Lamb of God.
 face shall be un - veiled. Stand - ing on o - ceans of glass and of fire, Be - hold the Lamb of God.
 an - gels will de - scend. Wheat shall be gath - ered, the tares shall be burned, Be - hold the Lamb of God.