

The Day of the Lord Shall Come

♩ = 54

Words and Music by John W. Holt

Dm B♭ F C Dm B♭ F C Dm B♭ F C

Up - on all pleas - ant pic - tures,
Up - on the sev - en o - ceans,
Up - on the proud and lof - ty,

Up - on all moun tains high,
Up - on the ships that sail,
Up - on all wick - ed - ness,

Up - on all lands and na - tions
Up - on the high - est for - tress
Up - on all earth - ly trea - sure

B♭ C Dm B♭ F C Dm B♭ F C

un - der - neath the sky;
whose de - fense shall fail;
and the arm of flesh;

The hour no one know - eth,
A - lone He is ex - alt - ed,
When si - lence fills the heav - ens,

The signs are proph - e - sied,
No one shall take His crown,
Be - fore the an - gels sing,

Dm B♭ F C B♭ C B♭ Dm C Gm

The branch - es are yet ten - der,
And ev' - ry tongue shall swear as The scroll shall be un - fold - ed

Sum - mer time is nigh.
ev' - ry knee bows down.
to re - veal our King.

Yea, and the day of the Yea, and the day of the Yea, and the day of the Lord shall come,

Lord shall come,
Lord shall come,

B♭ Dm C B♭ Dm C Gm

From the clouds of heav - en Sav - ior of the world in
From the clouds of heav - en

He shall re - turn;
tri - umph returns;
He shall re - turn;

Ev' - ry eye shall see the
When the trum - pet of the Ev' - ry eye shall see the

wounds in His hands;
arch - an - gel sounds;
wounds in His hands;

B♭ F C Dm

In pow'r and glo - ry He will
The Word of God shall not be Up - on the moun - tain He shall stand.
bound.
stand!