

One Little Lamb

Moderato

Adrienne Foster Potter

Piano

1. One lit - tle lamb
2. One lit - tle babe
3. Are you the lamb

Piano

4

lost on the moun - tain, nine - ty nine sheep on the hill;
born in a sta - ble, un - der one star in the sky;
lost on the moun - tain? Is He now call - ing to you?

Pno.

7

Will the shep-herd leave the nine - ty and nine and search for the one? Yes he Nine - ty thou - sand an - gels sing ing their song of One who came down from on
Will you hear His voice and run to His arms as all of His sheep of - ten Pno.

10

will! mf He climbs up the moun - tain and search - es, and high. He climbs up the moun - tain and teach - es, and do? He feeds us with words from the scrip - tures, and Pno.

13

then the lit - tle lost one he sees; _____ Then in the dis - tance he bless - es all the lame, deaf and blind; _____ He e - ven brings loved ones guides us so we won't go a - stray; _____ Each lit - tle lamb is so

Pno.

One Little Lamb

16

sees the star shine bright - ly a - bove the trees. He back to life and the heals hurt - ing hearts and that minds.
pre - cious to the King who was born that day.

f

Pno.

19

came in the night — be - neath the star, while Beth - le - hem was a - Pno.

22

sleep; One might - y Shep - herd came to earth to Pno.

25

gath - er and feed His sheep.

Pno.

27

pp

Pno.

8vb