1. A new star rose to draw the wise Toward the Ho-ly Son,
2. Now new stars may a-rise by grace And bright-en the ex-panse.
3. Re-splend-ence ra-di-ates through night As God is glo-ri-fied.

Who, like the star, with pow'r sup-plies His light to eve-ry-one. (His light)
His mer-cy, love, and kind em-brace Ex-tend through cov'-nant hands. (His hands)
For those who share the Sav-ior's light Can feel His love a-bide. (a-bide)

To those in dark-ness, doubt, or fear, His glo-ry guides them on,
To those whose sor-row has no words Nor felt the warmth of sun,
To those who hold the truth by faith And draw to-ward the Son,

And like a bea-con, pure and clear, En-light-ens one by one. (by one)
A lov-ing ges-ture as the Lord's Can lift up one by one. (by one)
The star of day with glo-rious rays En-liv-ens one by one. (by one)
