Narrator:

During His earthly ministry, Christ left His church and His priesthood power with His apostles . After His resurrection, our Savior met with the twelve and instructed them in His gospel. These men then went forth to spread the word of their Lord and Savior. As they taught and preached, many of those who heard accepted, but many rejected it also. It seemed the harder they worked, the harder Satan opposed, until finally, Christ's apostles were gone. With them went the church organization and in turn the power of the priesthood. John, the beloved, knew that this would happen and told the world of a wondrous future, when he said, "And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven having the everlasting gospel to preach unto them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and tongue, and people." (Revelation 14:6)

Christ's true church and His priesthood power have been restored. The story of that restoration is now being taught throughout the world, and what a glorious story it is.
