Eyes to See

Words and music by Stephanie Boyd

Expressively, ♩ = 75

Voice / Piano

1.The blind man Sav - ior knew he could not see. His eyes were dark, and ev - ry rock heard the blind man's cries Through faith, His grace seemed to catch his feet. I wond-er if I can real - ly see, is my gran - ted him new sight. I'm yearn-ing to see with clar - i - ty, to Lyrics (measures 21-38): faith bright, does it light the road a-head of me? Oh, Lord, Give me be aware real-ly care for oth-ers' hidd – en needs. Oh, Lord, 1.

eyes to see the truth that lies be-fore me. Give me eyes to see the pain of those in need. Let my heart per-ceive the things that I am lack-ing.

Help my mind be free Give me eyes to see.

2.The eyes to see the truth that lies be-fore me. Give me eyes to see the pain of those in need. Let my hea-rt per-ceive the things that I am lack-ing. Help my mind be free Give me eyes to see.

Give me eyes to see

4

the truth that lies be·fore me, give me eyes to see the pain of those in need. Let my hea·rt per·ceive the things that I am lack·ing. Help my mind be free. Give me eyes to see rit.