

Bethlehem Dreams

words and music by Tari-Jean Lybbert

1. That night, when slum-ber's
 (2. That) night when sweet re -

And.

spell held sway, a blind man dreamed of sight, and sweet - ly sang a night - in - gale, as the pose had come, the lame man dreamed he walked; And to the wid - ow's heav - y heart, a deaf man dreamed her song. That night as Ma - ry held her babe, and sang a soft lul - lu - vi - sion of those she'd lost.

by the an - gels sang in loud ac - claim, "Ho - san - na to God on high!"

Bethlehem Dreams

21 1. 2.

2. That 3. To night, when all the wear - y world in e - v'ning still des -

26

cends, and eyes that wat er pil - low down, have closed at long day end. O,

31

wear - y ones, look up and see His star shin - ing in the sky and seek, as wise men

36

from a - far, the On - ly and Liv - ing Light.