

Armor of Light

With Energy ♩=100

1. Dark is the night, but soon comes the light The day is — daw-ning with hope so bright.
 2. Feet that are shod in firm gos - pel truths Will gain firm — foot - ting while still a youth.
 3. Prayer gives us strength; it gives us the pow'r To walk through dark-ness what e're the hour.

5

Must cast off all the works of the night, We must put — on the — Ar - mor of Light.
 We carr - y, too, our Faith as a shield, A - gainst which E - vil wil e - ver — yield.
 Gath - ered as one, we'll work to a - gree Be - fore we — kneel, for — aid to — plea.

9

Girt - ed with truth we stand for what's true And ne - ver wa - ver, though we be few.
 Sal - vat - ions hope our hel - met so strong To keep our minds pure our whole life long.
 Like a mant - tle, we'll wear Char - it - y For e - ver reach - ing to those we see.

13

Right - eous - ness is our breast - plate so sure Our soul pro - tect - ted, from sin se - cure.
 Might - y the sword: our Fa - ther's Spir - it, Will cut through E - vil, His Truths in - vite.
 Like our Sav - ior, we ne - ver will cease To do for — oth - ers and show His peace.

Lyrics: Bruce T. Forbes
 Music: Mark Richins

Doctrine and Covenants 27:15-18; 88:125; 124:116

Romans 13:12

Ephesians 6:10-20

©2021 by Bruce T. Forbes and Mark Richins

This work may be copied for incidental, noncommercial church or home use.

This and other sheet music can be found at markrichinsmusic.com