

Lyrics for One Seed by Nathan Howe

One seed, planted in my soul...
One truth, one principle I hold for a moment.
Inside, I hunger now to know...
Inside, a little nervous it won't grow, or that it will;
I need His Spirit still.

But one thing I already know:
It just won't work to skip a stepping stone.
Drop by drop and line on line,
This seed within me takes some time to grow
To a tree of life
To a life of hope
To the hope that I'll come home again.

One seed is swelling in my soul
From living Water that fills my heart and makes me whole, and I feel peace.
Tribulation brings me to my knees,
So many voices enticing me to leave this narrow road
And drop this heavy

But one thing I already know:
It just won't work to skip a stepping stone.
Drop by drop and line on line,
This seed within me takes some time to grow
To a tree of life
To a life of peace
To the peace when I come home again.

If Jesus could fall upon His face
And bleed from every pore to offer me His grace because He loves me,
Little wonder it takes something from me
To find the answers and walk where I can't see the road before me,
But He carries me.

And one thing I can say for sure:
The Son of God has walked my road before.
Drop by drop and line on line,
He gave His life to make something of mine:
To make a life of light
The light of hope
The hope that I'll come home again.

nathan howe
music

Find more music at NathanHoweMusic.com

©2006 Nathan Howe