

1st verse men sing unison, then parts until 4 part harmony
 2nd verse women sing unison, then parts until 4 part harmony
 3rd verse all unison until harmony

11

He knows their sor - rows and pain. One o - ver looked, who ma - ny for - sook, and One o - ver whelmed. Great stress is her realm. The One who has strayed be - cause a mis - take has feels so a - lone. He's dif - ferent than oth - ers. He's rod's hard to hold. She's wea - ry and weak. She bro - ken the heart. Ev - er - y day drift - ing shunned by his broth - ers. He's strayed far from home. His no long - er seeks and she strays from the fold. The fur - ther a - way. Feel - ing too far a - part. The strayed far from home. His stray from the fold. The too far a - part. The 21

15

18

21

pain is too strong un - til one comes a - long and sees worth in his soul.
 pres - sure's too strong un - til one comes a - long and lifts her heart to see 21 sin is too strong un - til one comes a - long and guides eyes up to see

24

24

Pure love is given. He's guid - ed to Him who
 The Gift of Christ, can make bur - dens light. For Our Sa - vior, Christ, has paid the price, if 24

worth in their their heart to see.
 their eyes to see.

27

27

can heal and make one whole.
 His yoke can set one free. If we look through the eyes of the shep-herd we'll find the 27 one come on hum - ble knees

31

31 lost who are wear - y and cold. He calls us to seek out His

34

34 stray and weak. Bring His lambs back to the fold.

39

39 He leaves nine-ty and nine to seek and to find. Help lift and bring them home.