

The Sisterhood of Zion

Donnalynn Grunewald

Moderately ♩ = 66

1. Who is my sis-ter?
2. I see my sis-ter
3. An-oth-er sis-ter,

4

Who will share with me the chal-lenges and joys of this so-ci-e-ty? The there on bend-ed knee, in a hum-ble cott-age with her fam-i-ly. But speak-ing for-eign words; Teach-ing in a lang-uage I have nev-er heard.

7

work is there for some-one. Who will hear-ken to the call? To-geth-er we are strong and we may Though her roof is thatch-ing and though her floors are bare, I know that I could step in-side and when she comes to-ward me and reach-es out her hand she speaks the u-ni-ver-sal tongue of

10

com - fort one and all_ feel the Spi - rit there.      And all a - round the world      we are gath - er - ing_ as one.      The love, I un - der - stand.

13

Sis - ter - hood of Zi - on and our sto - ry's just be - gun.      Speak - ing ma - ny tongues and from a 16

hund - red diff - 'rent lands.      The Sis - ter - hood of Zi - on hand in hand_

19

Hands reach - ing out_ a - cross the waves

22

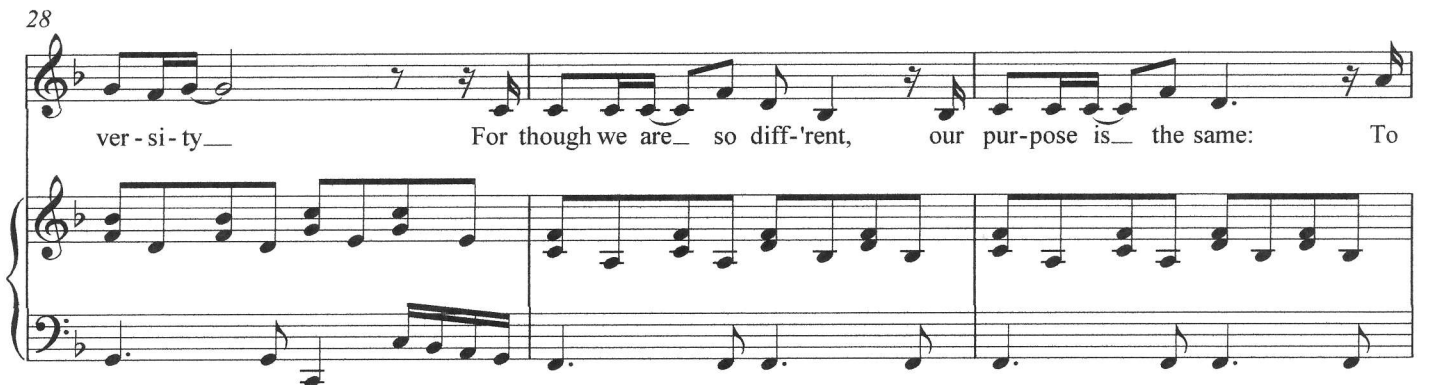

a-cross the land. Reach-ing out to heal, to bond, to un-der-stand.

25

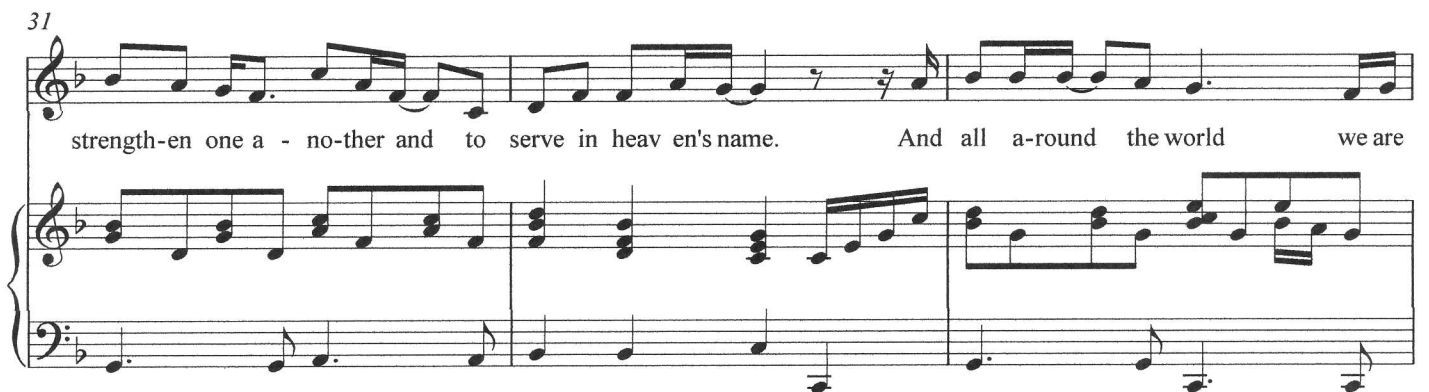

I see my sis-ters, diff-'rent as can be and yet, we can re-joice in our diver-si-ty For though we are so diff-'rent, our pur-pose is the same: To strength-en one a - no-ther and to serve in heav en's name. And all a-round the world we are gath-er- ing_ as one . The Sis-ter hood of Zi- on and our stor-y's just be- gun.

28

31

34

37

Speak-ing ma-ny tongues and from a hund-red diff-'rent lands The Sis-ter hood of Zi- on, hand in hand.

40

ritardando