

My Body is a Temple

Lyrics by Michelle Willis (1976-)

Tune by Melody Willis (2000-)
Arr. by Michelle Willis

$\text{♩} = 80$

1. My bo - dy is a tem - ple, a
2. My bo - dy is a tem - ple, a
3. My bo - dy is a tem - ple, a 4. My bo - dy is a tem - ple, and gift from God a - bove. In - side it lives my spi - rit which was glo - rious work of art. The out - er walls of flesh re - flect de - mir - a - cle in - side, Where heart and mind com - mun - i - cate to yours_ is_ too, So I will al - ways have re - spect when born of Fath - er's love. My hands can touch, my legs can run, my eyes can see. I'm sires_ of my heart, So I will dress with mo - des - ty and take great care To help my bo - dy thrive; So I will fol - low words of wis - dom faith - ful - ly And I spend time with you. I'll use my hands for good and ne - ver cause you fear. I'll

A little faster

pat tern'd af-ter Fath-er, and He wants to dwell with me.
 treat my bo-dy sa-cred-ly by what I say and wear.
 on-ly put in-side it what is good_ for_ me.
 keep the sa-cred trust God gave me when He sent me here.

I am a tem-ple of God; A ho-ly ta-ber-na-cle of flesh and bone. And al-ways with me the Ho-ly Ghost can be If I pro-tect my bo-dy 'til I'm called home.