Text by Matthias Claudius

Music by Linda Pratt

We plow the fields, and scat - ter the good seed on the land, But He on - ly is the Mak - er of all things near and far; He We thank Thee, then, O Fath - er, for all things bright and good; it is fed and wat - ered by God's al - might - y hand; he paints the way - side flow - er, He lights the even - ing star; The seed time and the har - vest, our life, our health, and food; No sends the snow in win - ter the warmth to swell the grain, The winds and waves o - bey him, by Him the birds are fed; Much gifts have we to of - fer, for all Thy love im - parts, But breez - es and the sun - shine, and soft re - fresh - ing rain. more to us, His child - ren, He gives our dai - ly bread.

that which Thou de - sir - est, our hum - ble, thank - ful hearts.
