

Sing the Song of Redeeming Love

Words and Music by John W. Holt

♩ = 86

G

The found - a - tion has been laid; God's great plan to save His Mig - ty stone cut with - out hands. It will roll through ev' - ry Do not grieve be - cause of sin. There will be a bright to - Praise the rock of righ - teous - ness. Do not weep in des - per - child - ren. Dark - ness can - not comp - re hend; the Light and Life shall not be na - tion; like a mount - ain it shall stand; to fill up all of God's cre - mor - row, if we trust in Him who saves; the Christ has come to end all a - tion. But for Him, we all are lost. He is the au - thor of sal - hid - den. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. Sing as one by course in a - tion Sing the song of redeem - ing love. Join the choirs a - bove in sor - row. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. Let each heart shout praise in va - tion. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. Sing as one by course in

C

G

D

G

D

G

C

D

G

prais - ing. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. See the dark - ness now is fad - ing.
sing - ing. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. See God's king - dom, how it's gleam - ing.
glad - ness. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. No more pain and no more sad - ness.
prais - ing. Sing the song of redeem - ing love. At the gate He now is wait - ing.